

ANNOUNCE PLAN FOR SIMULTANEOUS REVIVAL CAMPAIGN

Many Successful Evangelists to Assist Local Ministers. Campaign Will Begin on March 21.

A number of churches have announced their plans for the great simultaneous revival campaign to begin on March 21. Among the leaders in the revival will be four of the most successful evangelists in the South. Four Christian churches have engaged evangelists for the campaign. Rev. G. H. Combs, of Kansas City, formerly pastor of Independence Boulevard church in that city, will assist Rev. W. M. White, D. D., pastor of Linden Avenue Christian church, Tenn. Rev. E. S. Baker, of Dyersburg, Tenn., will preach at McLemore Avenue Christian church, where Rev. Geo. W. Kemper is pastor. Methodist churches have also been active in engaging evangelists for the revival. St. John's church started its revival Sunday. Dr. H. C. Morrison, of Louisville, Ky., is here to conduct the service. He preached two strong sermons to large congregations Sunday. There will be services each night. First church has arranged with Rev. J. O. Hanes, of Birmingham, to assist Rev. H. S. Sprague, the pastor. "Pat" Davis Coming.

"Pat" Davis, widely known evangelist, of Louisville, Ky., will come to Harris Memorial church. Rev. Otto Gray Andrews, pastor of Pepper Memorial church, has announced that Rev. George A. Baker, conference evangelist for the North Mississippi Methodist conference, will assist in the revival at Pepper Memorial. Galloway Memorial church has engaged Rev. W. C. Swope, of Charleston, Mo.

Four Baptist churches have announced the evangelists engaged for their revivals. Dr. E. F. Gibson, pastor of Broadway Baptist church at Louisville, Ky., will come to First church, to assist the Rev. A. L. Boone, D. D., pastor. Rev. D. A. Ellis, pastor of LaBelle church, announces that Rev. J. E. Skinner, of Jackson, Tenn., will help him in the revival at LaBelle church. Boulevard church will be led in the revival by C. W. Knight, of Corinth, Miss.

Seventh Street Baptist church has engaged Rev. Norris Lashbrook, of Owensboro, Ky. Plans of the Presbyterian churches of the city are well under way. Evergreen Presbyterian church, of which Rev. J. B. Carpenter is pastor, has engaged Rev. R. T. Gillespie, of Lexington, Ky. Other Presbyterians churches will soon announce their plans. Many of the churches will not engage evangelists, the pastors preferring to conduct their own revivals.

Laymen will have a prominent part in the program. One special effort is to be made to sweep the city with renewed religious fervor and to win many souls for the kingdom. Preliminary to the revival, special prayer services will be held daily, beginning Monday. This week the prayer meetings will be conducted at the noon hour at Court Avenue Presbyterian church. Next week will be featured by neighborhood cottage prayer meetings. Between 500 and 1,000 cottage prayer services are planned for Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday night. Wednesday night the regular midweek prayer meeting will be held in the churches as usual, and an effort will be made to break all previous records for prayer meeting attendance. Headquarters for the executive committee.

TENSE PRESSURE ON HER HEAD

"My Sides, Back and Head Pained Me Just All the Time," Says Alabama Lady, Who Took Cardui and Got Well.

Uniontown, Ala.—"After the birth of my baby, I came near dying," writes Mrs. Maude Feltz of Uniontown. "I was in an awful condition. I did not look like I would die. I couldn't bear anyone to even touch me. I was so sore, not even to turn me in bed. My sides, back and head all pained me, just all the time. We had the doctor every day and he did everything he knew how, it looked like. Yet I lay there suffering such intense pains as seems I can't describe."

"Finally, I said to my husband, let us try Cardui. He went for it at once, and before I had taken the first bottle the... came back, the soreness began to go away, and I began to mend. The intense pressure seemed all at once to leave my head, and before long I was up."

"I took three bottles and was well and strong and able to do my work. I believed Cardui saved my life. I cannot praise it enough for what it did for me."

notice and various publications in charge of arrangements for the revival has been established at the Y. M. C. A. A generous response was received from the letters sent out by the committee, asking subscriptions for the expenses of the campaign. The time asked for has not been completed, however, and contributions will be solicited this week to complete the fund.

ALLEGED HIGHWAYMEN TO FACE CITY COURT

Charges of being the highwaymen who held up and robbed two negroes Saturday night, Ernest Temple, 7133 Florida street, and James Perkins, 18, 211 S. Second street, were to face the city court Monday afternoon on highway robbery charges. The men were arrested in a house near Colorado and Jackson Mound, a few minutes after Posey Reed and Louis Richardson, negroes, had been robbed of $40 at Colorado and Kansas.

One negro followed the stickup men, while the other telephoned to police headquarters. Inspector Bee and a squad of detectives nabbed the men in the house, which one of the negroes said they had entered after the robbery. Reed and Richardson positively identified the pair arrested as the highwaymen, but both youths declare that they have had no connection with hold-up practices.
